1101	Cyprus Under Richard 1st – By Geo. Jeffrey, O.B.E., F.S.A. – London 1973 Second Edition – Hardbound with dust wrapper. – 186 pages. Exc. condition. Richard the Lion Heart was married in Cyprus. The foreign sources of information of the adventurous progress of the Third Crusade, whilst giving due prominence to the important figure of Richard Coeur de Lion, as the protagonist of the great epic, are more concerned with the events which took place in the Holy Land than with the incidental occupation by the Anglo-Normans. In endeavouring to realize the circumstances of the first European occupation of Cyprus, la Vie Feodale de la Noblesse of the period must be described in the light of modern research carried on by innumerable students of mediaeval history during the past half Century: Violett le Duc, Rey, Schlumberger, and a host of others. This book will fulfil its purpose if it serve as a reminder of those curious an interesting associations which link the beautiful island of Cyprus with England.	45.00
